Resolution No. 97 W. I.—216, dated 13th May 1885, by the Government of Bombay on the Revenue Report of Irrigation Works in Sind for 1883-84.

Letter from the Superintending Engineer for Irrigation in Sind, No. 325, dated 4th February 1885.

Forwards the Revenue Report of Irrigation Works in Sind for 1883-84 with the usual tables, charts and a copy of the index map of Sind, recently revised at the request of the Commissioner in Sind; and explains the cause of delay in submitting the report.

Memorandum from the Commissioner in Sind, No. 666, dated 20th February 1885.

Forwards the report, with accompaniments, with his observations thereon.

RESOLUTION.—The inundation of 1883 was an unfavorable one, as the chart of gauge readings clearly shows, and in consequence the area of cultivation (as shown in Table II) was 1,32,462 acres less than that of the previous year. The difference in the total canal revenue for collection, shown in the same table, was only R31,792—a result which is mainly due to the introduction of the temporary revision settlements; but this, however, does not include any portion of the remissions (R83,093), the claims for which were not disposed of until after the close of the year. On the other hand, the actual realizations on account of hakaba from jaghirs were only R85,130 out of a total sum for collection of R2,05,508, and the balance due was R1,20,378. The outstandings of hakaba in Khelat, R95,174, are far too large, and the Political Agent at Jacobabad should be requested to make arrangements for their clearance.

2. The total area cultivated during the year was 1,540,831 acres, including 178,724 acres of jaghir land; the area of cultivation on which revenue was assessed was 1,362,107 acres, and the irrigation share of net consolidated assessment was R31,68,358 giving an average rate of R2.3 per acre. The gross assessed revenue from all sources was R28,66,726, and the net revenue R14,99,020. The net profit, after paying of interest, from Productive Irrigation works was R55,625.

3. The total amount expended on maintenance and repairs and revenue collection during the year was R13,67,706, which is about the same as in the two previous years, and R2,18,448 more than the average of the four years ending 1880-81. The percentage of expenditure on revenue was 41.36, and the cost of maintenance per acre R0.88, or about 14 annas, which are both reasonable. The percentage of cost of Public Works Establishment on expenditure on maintenance and repairs was 24.37, which is also reasonable.

4. It is satisfactory to find that the cultivation and revenue on the Mithrau and Thar Capals are increasing, and there is every reason to hope that in another year or two, when the protective embankments and the deepening of the Nara Supply Channel are completed, the financial results of the Eastern Nara Works will show a profit. The canal revenue, as shown in Table III, is R43,313 more than that of 1882-83, when it was stated that the minimum had been reached, and the loss during the year under review was only R52,870.

5. Government notice with much satisfaction that the increased expenditure which has been incurred on the maintenance of, and on improvements to, the canals, and the construction of river embankments in Sind for the past three years, has been productive of great good; and that the Commissioner in Sind is confident that the result of the work which has been done by the Irrigation Department will, in the course of a few years, be a large and steady increase in canal revenue.

6. The report is considerably overdue, as explained by the Superintending Engineer for Irrigation in his forwarding letter. Every endeavour should be made to ensure its more punctual submission in the future.

7. Copies of the report, of the Commissioner's endorsement thereon, and of the review of this Government should be forwarded as usual to the Government of India and the Secretary of State.

No. 666 of 1885.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,

COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

Camp Tando Adam, 20th February 1885.

Superintending Engineer's No. 325, dated the 4th February 1885, forwarding the Irrigation Report.

Submitted to Government.

2. The inundation was not a good one, "its fluctuating nature being its chief and worst characteristic." The canals, in consequence of the lowness of the inundation, were not well filled, the result being that cultivation was contracted and collections were also affected. Remissions also had to be granted to a considerable extent. One result of the lowness of the inundation was that the protective embankments were not greatly tried and breaches and floods were rare.

3. There was a decrease in kharif cultivation amounting to 84,178 acres and in rabi of 62,007 acres, total 146,185 acres, but the canal revenue for collection was only less than that of the previous year by Rs1,792,—a result mainly attributable to higher rates on lands—which, owing to improvements in canals, have been converted into rice lands instead of being classed only as fit for dry crops.

4. The amount of remissions (para. 12 of the report) does not correctly represent the losses on the year's cultivation, as, unfortunately, especially in the Hyderabad District, the Collector failed to dispose of remission claims within the year, and after the close of the year claims amounting to Rs3,093 were admitted, namely, in Hyderabad Rs66,762, in Shikarpur, Rs15,749, and in the Frontier District Rs581. These remissions, however, are not solely on account of lands watered from canals, so the exact sum admitted against canal revenue cannot be stated.

5. The table in para. 5 of the report shows the increase or decrease in each Canal Division—the largest increase is in the Fuleli Division—but the greater part of the increase thus shown has since been remitted. The Superintending Engineer has fully explained the causes of increase or decrease in the other Divisions and they call for no remark. It is unnecessary for the Commissioner to follow the Superintending Engineer in his account of the different canals. All details have been very fully given. Suffice it to say that the financial results (para. 19) are satisfactory.

6. The work of recent years done by the Irrigation Department has been productive of great good, but the full return from the work done cannot be expected at once, especially in a country like Sind where agricultural labourers are not easily obtained. The revenue realizations of the year to which the report refers, though less than those of the previous year, yet illustrate how much has been done, as with a low inundation the revenue would have shown a much larger decrease but for recent improvements to canals. Land too in the rear of the protective embankments is now being fast got ready for cultivation, and the Commissioner will be very much surprised if, in the course of a few years, there is not a large and steady increase in realizations. He has only recently travelled along the Thar and also the Nara protective embankments and was struck with the change in the country since he saw it three years ago. Everywhere lands were being got ready for the plough, and what was very satisfactory to notice was that the people were much better off than formerly. Before the erection of the protective embankments, cultivation was risky: one year splendid returns, the next sad losses; and this condition of things affected the morale of the people. Now with protection from floods they are becoming steady cultivators, working harder, and more anxious for improvements; and what is true of the Nara valley is, the Commissioner believes, true of every part of Sind, and that the protective embankments, if properly maintained, will do much to improve the condition and raise the character of the agricultural population. Much still remains to be done, but the results of the year, as shown in this report, show that satisfactory progress is being made.

H. N. B. ERSKINE,

Commissioner in Sind.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

No. 170 Accounts and Finance, dated 20th June, 1885.
Stores ...

From—The Government of India,

To—The Secretary of State for India.

In continuation of our Despatch of the 28th April, 1884, No. 117, we have the honour to forward, in original, returns showing the expenditure on stores for the year 1883-84, and the extent to which articles of Indian manufacture were substituted for stores imported from England for the public service in India during the year.

2. A classified abstract, compiled from these returns, is appended to this Despatch. For facility of comparison, the figures for the year 1882-83 have also been entered in the abstract.

3. The figures in column 4 of the abstract show that considerable progress has been made in the substitution of Indian manufactured stores for imported stores, such substitution having been 80 per cent. larger in 1883-84 than in 1882-83. At the same time we think it necessary to say that the figures cannot be taken to be absolutely accurate, although no doubt they afford a tolerably fair indication of the progress made by Indian industry in supplying the wants of the public service.

4. The principal articles are the following :—

Building and engineering materials, Rs. 44,474.—Cement made in India forms an important item under this head, the value of cement purchased being Rs. 37,782.

REVENUE AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 29th JULY 1886.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Rain has fallen in varying quantities throughout the Madras Presidency, but more is wanted in Bellary, Tanjore, and Madura. General prospects are fair, and have improved in Bellary and Anantapur; in Madura prospects are reported to be discouraging. Harvesting continues in some districts. From Mysore the reports are less favourable than last week: more rain is much needed for recently sown dry crops and for tanks. Good rain is reported from Coorg, where prospects are satisfactory.

In Bombay good rain has fallen in most districts, but more is wanted in parts of Khandesh, Nasik, Poona, Bijapur, and Sholapur. Kharif sowings are in general progress throughout the Presidency, and transplanting operations have commenced in places. There has been rain throughout the Berars, the Nizam's Territories, and the Central India and Rajputana States, and agricultural prospects are on the whole promising.

In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh rain has been abundant, and the prospects of the autumn crop are good. In the Punjab and in the Central Provinces good rain has fallen. Kharif sowings are in general progress in the former Province and have been completed in the latter, where transplanting has commenced.

In Bengal good rain has fallen during the week, except in parts of the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, where more rain is wanted for the transplanting of late rice. The prospects of the autumn crops and of sugarcane are good, and a fair outturn is expected from the early rice and jute harvests, which are in progress in Northern and Eastern Bengal. In Assam the weather is seasonable, and the state and prospects of the crops are good.

In British Burma ploughing, sowing, and transplanting are in progress.

Cholera is chiefly prevalent in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies; in other Provinces the public health is generally fair.

Prices are fluctuating in the Punjab, but are generally steady elsewhere. From Bengal no material change is reported.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT 24 & 25 VIC., CAP. 67.

The Council met at the Viceregal Lodge, Simla, on Wednesday, the 29th July, 1885.

His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India, K.P., G.C.B.,

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, LL.D., K.C.S.I., C.I.E.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, G.C.B., C.I.E.

Lieutenant-General the Hon'ble T. F. Wilson, C.B., C.I.E.

The Hon'ble C. P. Ilbert, C.I.E.

The Hon'ble Sir S. C. Bayley, K.C.S.I., C.I.E.

The Hon'ble T. C. Hope, C.S.I., C.I.E.

The Hon'ble Sir A. Colvin, K.C.M.G., C.I.E.

CENTRAL PROVINCES CIVIL COURTS BILL, 1885.

The Hon'ble MR. ILBERT introduced the Bill to amend the Law relating to Civil Courts in the Central Provinces, and moved that it be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Sir S. C. Bayley, the Hon'ble Mr. Hunter and the Mover, with instructions to report within two months.

The Motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. ILBERT also moved that the Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons be published in the Central Provinces Gazette in English and in such other languages as the Local Administration thinks fit.

The Motion was put and agreed to.

BURMA COURTS BILL, 1885.

The Hon'ble MR. ILBERT also moved that the Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Burma Courts Act, 1875, and section 360 of the Code of Civil Procedure, be taken into consideration. He explained that the Report was a very short one, and merely stated that the Bill as introduced had been approved by the local authorities and consequently did not call for any modification.

The Motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. ILBERT also moved that the Bill be passed.

The Motion was put and agreed to.

NORTHERN INDIA FERRIES ACT, 1878, AMENDMENT BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. HOPE moved for leave to introduce a Bill to amend the Northern India Ferries Act, 1878. He said :—

“The object of this Bill is to remedy a defect which may almost be described as one of drafting and nothing more, and which experience has brought to light. In section 3 of the present Ferries Act XVII of 1878, the word ‘ferry’ is defined as including a bridge-of-boats and other things; but by some accident section 13 provides that 'no person shall, except with the sanction of the officer charged with the superintendence of a public ferry, keep a ferry-boat for the purpose of plying for hire to or from any point within a distance of two miles from the limits of such public ferry'; and section 26 imposes a penalty for contravening section 13. The result of this is that, although the definition of 'ferry' is perfectly correct, the penalty clause is only applied to a person who plies a ferry-boat without a license, and it has been found that individuals are sufficiently ingenious to make a bridge-of-boats within the limits of a public ferry, and that they cannot be touched in any way. This defect it is now proposed to remedy; the proposed amendment is undoubtedly in accordance with the intention of the original Act.

"I may here mention a small matter which we intend to take this opportunity of providing for; that is, we propose to take power for leases being given by or with the sanction of the local authorities, otherwise than by public auction and for long terms. This is necessary in order to meet the case of ferries leased to Railway Companies on special agreements for long terms."

The Motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned to Wednesday, the 5th August, 1885.

REVENUE AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 5th AUGUST 1885.

GENERAL REMARKS.—In the Madras Presidency all districts report rain, but more rain is wanted in Bellary, Ganjam, Coimbatore, and Tanjore. Prospects have improved in Bellary and Anantapur and are generally fair, except in Madura, where they are unsatisfactory. In Mysore the rainfall was slight and insufficient for the young crops. Fodder is reported to be becoming scarce, and ploughing and sowing operations are retarded in places. In Tumkur and Kolar prospects are uncertain; and though they are moderately fair elsewhere, the harvest will depend on the future rainfall. In Coorg the season continues favourable.

General rain is reported from the Bombay Presidency, but more is wanted in parts of Karwar, Ahmednagar, Bijapur, Poona, and especially in Sholapur, Khandesh, and Nasik. The condition of the young crops is generally good, though in places they are reported to be slightly injured by blight and insects. Fodder is scarce in some districts. In the Berars, Hyderabad, the Central India and Rajputana States rain has been general, and the crops promise well.

Little or no rain fell in the Punjab during the week under report. The kharif sowings have been nearly completed, and prospects are on the whole good; but more rain is wanted. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh good rain continues to fall, but a break would now be beneficial. Prospects are everywhere good. Wet weather continues in the Central Provinces, where a break is now wanted in some districts. Rabi sowings have commenced, and weeding and transplanting continue.

Rain has fallen throughout Bengal, and prospects are favourable everywhere. Transplanting is progressing favourably, but more rain would be beneficial in some parts. In Central and Eastern Bengal the bhadoi harvest is in progress, with prospects of a good average yield of early rice. Seasonable weather prevails in Assam, and agricultural prospects continue good.

In British Burma ploughing, sowing, and transplanting continue.

The public health is generally fair in most Provinces.

Prices are generally stationary, except in the Punjab, where they fluctuate with a tendency to rise. In Bengal the price of rice is still high.

Statistics and Commerce Despatch, No. 49, dated London, the 14th May 1885, from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

I forward 225 copies of the official report of a meeting of the Royal Commissioners for the Colonial and Indian Exhibition of 1883, held at Marlborough House on the 30th March, sent to me by Sir Philip Cunliffe Owen, Secretary to the Commission, for distribution to intending private Exhibitors in India.

2. You may perhaps consider it advisable to publish the report in the Official Gazettes, for general information.

Proceedings of the First Meeting of the Royal Commission for the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, held at Marlborough House on Monday, the 30th March 1885.

The Royal Commission appointed by Her Majesty the Queen for the purpose of organizing the above exhibition met for the first time on Monday, the 30th March, at Marlborough House, under the presidency of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, in opening the proceedings, said :—

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,—In addressing you for the first time, I would remind you that the objects for which Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint this Commission are, briefly, to organise and carry out an Exhibition by which the reproductive resources of our Colonies and of the Indian Empire may be brought before the people of Great Britain, and by which also the distant portions of Her Majesty's Dominions may be enabled to compare the advance made by each other in trade, manufactures, and general material progress.

This project, to the realisation of which I have looked forward for some years, is essentially one of a National and Imperial character, differing in this respect from former Exhibitions, in which the elements of trade rivalry and profit largely predominated.

No such opportunity of becoming practically acquainted with the economic condition of our Colonies and the Indian Empire has ever been afforded in this country. The attractive display in the Indian and Colonial Courts at the Paris Exhibition of 1878 could only be witnessed by a comparatively small number of the population of these Islands, millions of whom may be expected to view and profit by the evidence which the Exhibition of 1886 will afford of the marvellous progress made by their fellow-countrymen beyond the seas.

I also trust that this gathering may serve even a higher purpose, and be the means not only of giving a stimulus to commercial interests and intercourse but of strengthening that Bond of Union between Her Majesty's subjects in all parts of the Empire, the growth and manifestation of which are most sincerely appreciated by us all.

Whilst Her Majesty's Government have given their hearty approval to the objects for which the Commission has been appointed, they have not so far found it desirable to make any definite grant towards it. The Commission have, therefore, to rely entirely upon the public support of the great purposes which the Exhibition is intended to promote; and on the attractive form which it will be the endeavour of all concerned to give to it.

I cannot doubt but that, under such conditions, should no untoward events occur, the project will be more than self-sustaining.

At the same time, it has been thought prudent not to dispense with the usual provision of a Guarantee Fund, though I trust no circumstances may arise rendering it necessary to make any call on the Guarantors. To this Fund the Indian and Colonial Governments have made liberal contributions, amounting to £51,000.

I have also to announce with much gratification that the most cordial and generous response has already been made by Corporations, Firms and individuals in the United Kingdom to an invitation to participate in this Guarantee. Although no formal or public appeal has yet been made, and the number invited to contribute to it has so far been limited, the list of subscribers not only embraces those whose interests may be supposed to be specially affected by the Exhibition, but comprehends every class of the community. Though but recently commenced, these further subscriptions already amount to £77,600, making a total Guarantee Fund of £128,600 to the present date.

I feel sure that you will unite with me in the expression of cordial thanks to those who have so promptly and liberally come forward to our assistance. It is a gratifying proof of the interest which exists among all classes at Home and in the outlying countries of the Empire, and of the desire felt by them to embrace every occasion to promote the common advancement and prosperity of the United Kingdom and its Colonies and Dependencies.

Considering the inconvenience which would have resulted to the Members of the Commission had they been summoned to meet at an earlier date, and in view of the immediate assembling of the various Colonial Legislatures, whose co-operation had to be obtained, I deemed it necessary, in order that full time might be given for the preparation of contributions, to take certain preliminary steps, which I trust will meet with your approval.

I have accordingly to announce that arrangements have been made by which the Buildings and Grounds at South Kensington, where the Fisheries and Health Exhibitions were recently held, have been placed at the disposal of this Commission, on fair terms, and the Buildings can be made available for our purposes at a moderate outlay.

I therefore caused plans of these Grounds and Buildings to be prepared, showing the space which the Commission could assign to India and the various Colonies, and the arrangements which were deemed most convenient. These were communicated to the Government of India, to the High Commissioner for the Dominion of Canada, to the various Agents-General of the Colonies, and, through the Colonial Office, to the Crown and other Colonies, and have met with their approval. Similar communications have been made through the Secretary of State for the Colonies direct to the various Governments, and to the Secretary of State for India with like results.

In the despatch which contained this information, I also stated that it was considered advisable that, in place of any awards being granted by Juries, as has been the case in previous Exhibitions, Commemorative Medals only should be given to each exhibitor. The object in suggesting this change was, that as some Colonies, from their age and circumstances, were more advanced than others, those in their infancy should not be placed at an undue disadvantage in an Exhibition from which all thoughts of trade rivalry should be excluded.

I am pleased to say that answers have been received which show that the suggestions made on this and other matters have been favourably accepted; and to inform you that the project of holding the Exhibition has been everywhere received with the utmost cordiality.

I trust that these preliminary arrangements may meet with your approval.

I have also to submit for your consideration the general method of administration which I recommend should be adopted.

As President of the Royal Commission, it is my intention personally to take the same active part in the work as I did at the Paris Exhibition of 1878.

The details of the Executive duties will devolve on Sir Philip Cunliffe-Owen, whose ability and experience have so often been tested with satisfactory results; and who has also been entrusted by the Indian Government and certain of our Colonies with Executive duties on their behalf.

I have also thought it desirable to nominate a Finance Committee for the purpose of controlling and regulating the expenditure of the Commission and guarding the interests of the Guarantors. This Committee, it is proposed, shall consist of the following members of the Commission, who have kindly placed their services at my disposal, viz., Sir John Rose, Bart. (Chairman); Sir George C. M. Birdwood; Mr. Edward Birkbeck; Sir Barrow Helbert Ellis; Sir William Charles Sargeant.

I will ask you to confirm the appointment of these gentlemen.

As arrangements advance, it may be necessary for me to recur in matters of special importance to your counsel and aid.

While no effort will be spared to render the Exhibition worthy of the primary objects, it is intended to promote, as well as to insure its attractiveness to the Community, the Guarantors may be assured that, subject to the attainment of these ends, no needless outlay will take place; but that, on the contrary, the expenditure will be kept within proper and legitimate limits. As an earnest of this endeavour I have directed full and detailed estimates of the different heads of proposed expenditure—guided by the experience of former Exhibitions—to be prepared for submission, first, to the Finance Committee, and subsequently for my own approval.

Though it is impossible to foresee what eventualities may arise, I trust no obstacles may occur to prevent this Exhibition from being, not only self-sustaining, but as successful, financially, as those of late years have been.

It has been suggested that advantage should be taken of the great numbers who will doubtless visit England during the Exhibition from the Colonies and from India, to procure for them special facilities for visiting the great manufacturing centres and chief places of interest in Great Britain, not only as an expression of welcome, but that they and we may profit by a comparison of their own with the more matured commercial systems of the Mother-Country, and that by bringing manufacturers, producers and consumers together, an impetus may be given to the general extension of industry and trade.

Negotiations are, in progress to effect this object which I hope may result, not only in mutual advantage, but in proving to our fellow subjects that they are as welcome elsewhere in Great Britain as I am sure they will be in the Metropolis.

In conclusion, let me express the hope that this great undertaking and the many occasions for friendly intercourse with our fellow subjects from India and the Colonies which it will afford, may convey to them the assurance that, while we are deeply moved by the spirit of patriotism they have lately shown in desiring to bear their share in the graver trials of the country, we, on our part, wish to participate in every effort to further and develop their material interests, interests which we feel to be inseparably bound up with the prosperity of the Empire. We must remember that, as regards the Colonies, they are the legitimate and natural homes, in future, of the more adventurous and energetic portion of the population of these Islands. Their progress, and their power of providing all that makes life comfortable and attractive, cannot, therefore, but be a matter of serious concern to us all. And, as regards India, the increasing knowledge of that vast Empire and the rapid and easy means of communication to all parts of it which now exist, render its remarkable and varied products and its social and political condition a source of yearly increasing interest and importance to us.

For the attainment of the purposes I have indicated, I am sure I may rely on your friendly co-operation and assistance, in your several localities, and within the sphere of your individual influence. Although it has been impossible from the pressure of their duties elsewhere for some members of the Commission to be present at this meeting, I am gratified by the assurance from them that we may none the less rely on their practical and earnest assistance on every occasion in furthering the work which has been entrusted to us, and achieving the important ends which I trust may flow from its successful accomplishment.

It only remains for me to express my cordial thanks to you for your kindness in attending here to-day, and my confidence that I shall continue to receive the same measure of support which it has been my good fortune to obtain from many of you on former occasions.

Sir Philip Cunliffe-Owen then read the correspondence relating to the appointment of the Commission and the participation of the various colonies, all of which were most willing to take advantage of this opportunity of displaying their resources and progress, and gaining a larger knowledge respecting their sister colonies.

A preliminary list of Guarantors was also read, the amount of the Guarantee Fund being already £128,600.

The EARL OF DERBY said: I have been asked to move a resolution, and I do it with great pleasure, but also very briefly, because argument is superfluous where I presume we are all of one mind, and it would be a mere waste of time to relate the circumstances, with which you are no doubt familiar, which should induce you to accept this resolution. There was a time, a few years ago, when it was said exhibitions were played out, and that it would be well, for a time at least, to discontinue them. I do not know whether that feeling was ever justified by the facts; it may have represented a passing phase of opinion in London, but it is not the case now. We have had recent experience, and we have seen that, whatever the ostensible objects of the exhibition, whether appliances of health, fisheries, forestry, or whatever the subject may be, the interest that is felt in these exhibitions is unabated, and ever-increasing. The numbers frequenting them seem to increase every year, and if they are well conducted, there can be no doubt they will be a financial success. If this be true, generally, it is still more likely to be true in the case of the exhibition which is to be held next year. I think we must all see and feel that there never was a time in the history of the country when so deep and general an interest was taken in the affairs of the Colonies; and I think also we all feel that, living as we do in a small and overcrowded island, it is both our duty and our interest to do all in our power to bring before the minds of our fellow countrymen those vast countries beyond the sea, in which those who have comparatively small opportunities of making a successful career in this country may have a better chance in another state of society. After the correspondence which has been read, it will not be necessary for me to recapitulate the details of what has passed, especially as His Royal Highness has been kind enough to state what is most important on that point. I will only say that to me, and those with whom I have acted departmentally, and I think I may say the agents of the colonies, it has been a source of pride and satisfaction to be able to help according to the measure of our power in promoting the wishes of His Royal Highness. I think, although the matter is not completed, and therefore it is undesirable to enter into details, that our colonial fellow subjects, both as regards governments and communities have responded to the appeal made to them in that liberal and patriotic manner we have every reason to expect. You have heard the list of Guarantors read; it is, I believe, an ample one for all purposes, and no doubt can be increased if necessary; and, looking at the increased interest in Colonial affairs, and the way the Colonies have taken the matter up, I think there is no doubt that this exhibition will be a great success. The purpose of the resolution I have to propose is that the Royal Commission may endorse the steps taken by His Royal Highness; and I think I may say that no passage in His Royal Highness's address has given so much satisfaction as that in which he gives us an assurance that he will take the same position in this exhibition as in that of 1878.

The EARL OF KIMBERLEY seconded the resolution, and said: As regards India, I have this exhibition much at heart. There is, perhaps, nothing more desirable for India than that its products and industries should be well known in this country, although we have much more to learn from than to teach them. Their beautiful manufactures which they have produced for so many ages have proved that there is a knowledge of many branches of art which it would be a thousand pities should be diminished under our rule. I have often been struck with the calamity of the introduction of our taste into Eastern arts and manufactures; for their taste is far better than ours, although we have no doubt engineering knowledge and skill and the command of capital; and I cannot conceive of any advantage greater than that the two countries should be brought together. The Government of India will itself undertake the collection and management to a great extent of what is to be sent into this country. You will see from the immense size of our Indian Empire, and the position of the Government there, that it is much better this should be taken in hand by the Government. It is a great satisfaction to me to concur entirely with the proposals made by His Royal Highness, and with my noble friend that this exhibition will be a remarkable success.

The following is the resolution, which was carried unanimously: "That this Commission entirely approves of the arrangements made by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Executive President, and now reported by him in detail: and they desire to convey their cordial thanks to His Royal Highness for the interest he has shown in the undertaking, and their appreciation of the judicious steps taken by him to insure its success. The Commission further desire to express their cordial appreciation of the liberal and gratifying contributions already made to the Guarantee Fund, and their warm thanks to the subscribers."

The PRINCE OF WALES: I feel very grateful to Lord Derby for the kind way in which he has moved this resolution, and to Lord Kimberley also for the kind expressions that have fallen from him, and for the hearty and unanimous approval of this Commission, which I look upon as a vote of confidence in myself. I may say that to the utmost of my power and endeavour I will do all I can to further the exhibition, and I feel sure that I shall have the hearty support and concurrence of the distinguished gentlemen of whom I see so many around me. I thank you again for having listened to the address I read to you, and only hope that no untoward event may occur between now and next year to prevent this resulting in perhaps the finest exhibition that has ever been held.

The Meeting then terminated.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 12th AUGUST 1885.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Rain has fallen in all districts in the Madras Presidency, with the exception of Bellary, where it is much wanted for the dry crops, which are suffering. In Madura prospects continue unsatisfactory, and more rain is wanted in Ganjam, Kistna, Coimbatore, Tanjore, and Malabar. In Mysore prospects are uncertain in consequence of the deficient rainfall. Dry crops recently sown are reported to be withering in many places, and agricultural operations have been retarded. In Coorg seasonable weather prevails, and prospects are good.

Slight rain has fallen generally throughout the Bombay Presidency, but more is wanted in parts of Sholapur, Ahmednagar, Bijapur, Nasik, Khandesh, and Dharwar. Young crops are withering in some districts, and have in some places been injured by insects. In the Berars slight rain has fallen, and crops are promising. In the Nizam's Territories rain is much needed for the standing kharif crops. In the Central India and Rajputana States good rain has fallen generally, and agricultural prospects are satisfactory.

In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh heavy rain has injured the crops in some places, and a break is now much needed. The condition of the crops is, however, generally very favourable. Rain has fallen in most districts in the Punjab. Kharif sowings have nearly been completed, and prospects are on the whole good. In the Central Provinces the weather is seasonable, and crop prospects are favourable. Transplanting and weeding continue in most districts.

In Bengal rain has been general, but in parts of the Presidency Division more is needed. Some damage has been caused to crops by floods in the Midnapur District and the Bhagalpur Division, but otherwise prospects are generally favourable. The bhadoi harvest is yielding a good average outturn. In Assam rainy weather prevails, and the transplanting of sali rice is in progress. Tea promises well. Seasonable rain has fallen in all districts in British Burma, and prospects are good.

The public health is generally fair in most Provinces. Prices are fluctuating in the Punjab, but elsewhere they are generally steady. In Bengal the price of rice continues high.

Remarks by Executive Engineer.
Northern Division, Ganges Canal—Demand steady up to 28th of the month when heavy rain fell in the division. Rice irrigation still being effected.
Anupshahr Division, Ganges Canal—Decrease in indigo 7,000 acres due to bad prices realised last year. Increase of sugarcane 4,000 acres partly replacing indigo. Demand very heavy to 28th, after which no demand except for rice.
Meerut Division, Ganges Canal—Heavy demand up to the 27th June, when the rain commenced, after which water was taken for rice only.
Bulandshahr Division, Ganges Canal—Demand very strong up to 22nd, when monsoon-like weather set in, and demand ceased.
Aligarh Division, Ganges Canal—Heavy rain fell on 27th and stopped all demand. Cause of decrease in indigo demand.
Agra Division, Ganges Canal—There is a falling off of 14,000 acres in indigo due to bad prices realised last year. Areas under all other crops have increased. Heavy rain fell on the 29th June, when all demand ceased.
Narora Division, Lower Ganges Canal—Decrease as compared with last year altogether under indigo and due to low prices for last year's crop.
Mainpuri Division, Lower Ganges Canal—Strong demand for water till the 23rd, when the rains set in and all demand ceased.
Cawnpore Division, Lower Ganges Canal—Rain commenced on the 21st, and all demand ceased by the 24th. Lower Ganges Canal—Executive Engineer shows an increase of 3,065 acres as compared with last year's harvest. The increase is chiefly in sugarcane and sugarcane in the Jumna Canal—High demand up to 24th. Heavy and general rain on 28th and 29th, and canal closed for a few days. Sugarcane 5,400 acres over last year. The net decrease is due to the season, which has kept all other irrigation backward.
Agra Canal—Demand was very strong till the 24th. Heavy rain fell between the 24th and 28th. No demand after the 27th.
Robilkhand Canals—Great demand for sugarcane up to 22nd, when rain set in and fair demand for rice since that date.
Dun Canals—Month began with light demand for gardens, sugarcane and 2nd-class rice paddy; this increased to heavy demand up to the 16th, when rain fell; from this time to the end of the month water was demanded for the most part for rice only.
No remarks from the other divisions.

Read the following:—

Summary of the Weather Reports for July 1885.

Heavy rain fell at Mangalore on the 1st. This proved to be the beginning of a burst of rather heavy rain on the west coast, lasting until the 9th, and spreading northward as far as Ratnagiri, without, however, reaching Bombay. Between the 10th and 16th, though rain fell daily along the west coast, the amounts were not large, but on the 17th a fall of six inches occurred at Bombay and larger amounts on the neighbouring hills. This was the first down-pour of the season on the Konkan coast, and resulted in extensive floods in the neighbourhood of Bombay. Rather heavy rain again fell along the Malabar Coast on the 23rd; but on the whole the amounts recorded in the west of the peninsula, subsequent to the middle of the month, were moderate, and, except in Malabar, the total rainfall of the month was below the average. In Gujarat the rainfall was nearly up to the average of the month, but this result was due rather to the occurrence of heavy local and spasmodic falls at Rajkot, Ahmedabad, and Broach than to steady continuous rain throughout the month. In Sind and Cutch and northward over the Punjab there was very little rain, the relative deficiency during the present month being even greater than in those provinces during June. In the central parts of the country, i.e., Rajputana, Central India, and the Central Provinces, though the average was not actually equalled, the deficiency was small, and in the Berars, the Deccan, and Hyderabad the average was slightly exceeded.

In the eastern and central parts of the peninsula the normal westerly winds appear to have been exceptionally dry; and Mysore, Bellary, and the Karnatic had even less than the small average rainfall. Further north, in the Northern Circars, Orissa, Chutia Nagpur and Lower Bengal, there has also been a slight deficiency; but in Assam, Kachar, Northern Bengal, and over the whole of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh the rainfall has been excessive. During the month several small, and in general feeble, depressions have travelled slowly up the Gangetic plain—some apparently having been formed over the Gangetic Delta, others over Behar or that neighbourhood. Though very slight when measured by barometric differences, some of these disturbances have occasioned heavy falls of rain, of which the more important are as follow:—

	Inches.		Inches.
Darjeeling, 2nd ...	4.38	Dinagepur, 12th ...	4.41
Bahraich, 3rd ...	4.02	Sutna, 13th ...	5.01
Muzaffarpore, 4th ...	5.20	Aligarh, 16th ...	5.50
Naini Tal, 3rd and 4th ...	14.80	Benares, 22nd ...	4.68
Saugor Island, 7th ...	4.27	Saugor Island, 29th ...	6.15
Bareilly, 11th ...	4.21	Mussoorie, 30th ...	5.48

On the whole the rainfall of the month has been more favourable in many respects than that of June. The Punjab, Sind, Cutch, the Konkan, and Orissa again exhibit more or less important deficiencies; but in North Bengal and Behar, where last month a serious deficiency seemed impending, there has now been an almost compensating excess, and in the Deccan, Hyderabad, and Berars, though the excess of the present month does not make up for the deficiency of the last, there has at least been no further failure.

The figures for the season, up to date, show that the rains have been unfavourable in two regions. One includes the Konkan, Khandesh, and the Bombay Deccan, where the amount of rainfall for the two months, June and July, has been only from $\frac{1}{5}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the average amount, and the other the Punjab, where (though there are some exceptions) the general rainfall of the Province has been only $\frac{1}{3}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the normal. In all other parts of the country the seasonal average has been fairly well maintained.

The other meteorological elements exhibit few variations worthy of note. There has been a pretty general excess of pressure over the peninsula, extending on the western side, northward into Gujarat and Rajputana, and a general deficiency over Northern and Central India. The temperature has been above the average in the Punjab, the Central Provinces, Central India, Sind, Gujarat and the Konkan, but generally below it in the peninsula and Burma. The amount of humidity in the atmosphere has been below the mean in the Punjab, and has varied irregularly elsewhere.

The following table shows the amount of rain and the difference from the average during the month of July 1885, according to districts, as far as is indicated by the telegraphic reports:—

SIMLA ;
The 5th August, 1885. } W. L. DALLAS,
Asst. Meteorological Reporter to the Govt. of India.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the papers be printed in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 19th AUGUST 1885.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Rain has fallen during the week in all districts of the Madras Presidency from which reports are received. In Bellary heavy rain is urgently required for the early dry crops. Prospects are still unsatisfactory in Madura, and more rain is wanted in Ganjam, Coimbatore, and Tanjore. Elsewhere prospects are generally good, and improvement has taken place in Anantapur. In Mysore very slight rain has fallen, the crops are in a critical condition, and pasturage and water are failing. In Coorg prospects continue good.

Prospects have greatly improved in the Bombay Presidency, in consequence of the recent rainfall, but more rain is urgently wanted in parts of Sholapur and Bijapur. In these districts and in Nasik, Poona, and Ahmednagar fodder is scarce. Kharif sowings are still in progress in places. Rain has fallen in the Berars and Hyderabad, and the condition of the crop is favourable. In the Central India and Rajputana States rain has been general, and the crops are generally in a satisfactory condition.

Good rain is reported to have fallen throughout the Punjab, with the exception of the Lahore district. Kharif prospects are generally favourable. Rain has fallen in most districts in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and a break is now wanted. Crop prospects are good, though some damage has been caused to cotton, indigo, and the crops on low lands. Rain has been general in the Central Provinces, and prospects are good.

In Bengal rain has been fairly general, but more is wanted in some districts. Early crops are generally doing well, but in some places in Behar and the Burdwan divisions and in Moorshedabad injury has been caused by floods. The aus rice harvest is progressing, with prospects of a fair average outturn; and amun rice is being transplanted. Seasonable weather prevails in Assam, but in Sylhet more rain is much needed for the paddy crops on high lands. Transplanting continues.

In British Burma the rains have been seasonable in all districts, except Prome, where more rain is required. Ploughing, sowing, and transplanting are in progress.

The public health is generally fair.

Prices are fluctuating in the Punjab, and have risen slightly in Mysore. Elsewhere they are fairly steady.
